DO I NEED TO GO INTO BUSINESS?

No, the program's intention is to activate the entrepreneurial mindset to prepare them for careers that require problem solving, innovation, and soft skills that will enable them to be successful in whatever field they pursue. Having exposure to Entrepreneurship and Sound Financial Literacy will enable them to create multiple streams of income in preparation for their future family.

HOW CAN I MAKE THE MOST OUT OF MY INVESTMENT?

Before we begin, understand that this program is a secret weapon that most women your age doesn't have. A lot of these lessons that are going to be shared with you were lessons learned by Edna through painful experiences and from those that she paid to mentor her during her career and journey towards business ownership. These insights are meant to help shield you from unnecessary setbacks and allow you to have wisdom in making decisions that will ultimately affect you for the rest of your life.

People are destroyed because of the lack of knowledge.

Your biggest investment is your time. Take our time together seriously. Do the exercises so you can engage with your coach and class on questions you may have during the session. We do not expect you to have all the answers, the assignments are meant to challenge you. Set one on one appointments with your coaches to discuss topics that you need more help in. Don't be afraid to ask stupid questions. There are none! Enjoy the journey.
